Day 1

"The heavens Declare the Glory of God, the skies proclaim the work of his hands." Psalm 19:1

Do you ever have doubt that God exists or if He is really capable of the impossible? Have you been waiting on a promise from God for so long that you doubt He has heard you? Well don't be dismayed, He is there & He has heard you! When you have these doubts look to the skies, to the mountains & the nature around you. When you look at that sunset in all its perfect magnificence, remember who has put it there and the same Maker of the Universe is looking out for you! He holds you in the palm of His Hand & the Same power that Rose Jesus from the Dead Lives in YOU!

Journal

Think over Times when God has shown you His Glory & You've known without a Doubt that He is there & He is All Powerful. Write down obstacles in your life that you are currently trusting Him to Help you overcome. Pray <3

Day 2

"The name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous run into it and are safe" Proverbs 18:10

Some of us carry hurt from the past that can make us feel disconnected from God's loving & protective arms. If you haven't had a safe place to run to on this earth, you may battle to grasp what a safe haven feels like? Well today is the day to break this in your life! Pray for a freedom from past pain & hurt. Forgive those who have wronged you and Ask God to restore these areas in your life.

Today run to your Father who loves you and wants to hide you in the safety of His wings!.

Journal

When you think of God do you feel safe & protected or disconnected? Pray over these areas and ask Him to surround you & that you may feel His protection, power & security!.

Day 3

“God says “ I will never fail you. I will never abandon you” Hebrews 13:5

This is an incredible Promise from God! The Maker of Heaven and Earth Promises that He will NEVER Leave you and NEVER fail you!

So when you have feelings of fear, anxiety or panic about your current situation or the future, remember who Holds your future. He has already gone before you and He promises He wont leave you! Even when you cant feel Him, He is there! He is working everything for your Good. Dont lose heart beautiful lady, God has already made a plan out of this tunnel you in. There is Hope. He is the Light in the Darkness

Write down the areas you are anxious over & Hand them over to God in prayer, remember He will NEVER fail you!

Day 4

“What is impossible for People is possible with God.” Luke 18:27

Sometimes we can't quite grasp the Strength & Power of our God! We so often relate things in the only way we know, as humans. BUT our God is bigger and greater than this! We can't even begin to comprehend what He is capable of and what he is doing right now! So today i want to challenge you to trust and believe for the big things, for the imposible. What we concider impossible, is NOT impossible for our All Powerful God!

If life and circumstances have stolen your joy and hope, I encourage you to Believe again. Have Vision and hope for the Future again. God has an amazing plan and purpose for your life! Trust Him for the Big Impossible things. With Him by your side, you can't go wrong!

Journal

What is the Impossible you are Trusting for?

Day 5

” Let’s not grow weary of doing good. At the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don’t give up” Galatians 6:9

This can be so much easier said than done.... to not grow weary in doing good even when we are not appreciated. To keep a good attitude even when we are tired or our kindness is not returned. Do you ever grow resentful when you are not appreciated and valued? But the best news is that even if no one ever recognizes you for all you do, God does!

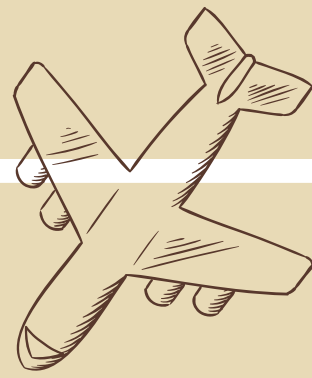

God sees it and he will reward you for it! And I don't know about you but I think God's Rewards are WAY better than any human ones!

Journal

What areas are you feeling challenged in today?

Day 6

“ Be still and know that I am God” Psalm 46:10

One of our greatest enemies can be Busyness!
People so often judge someone's success on how "Busy" they are and compete with their level of busyness..... How crazy is this!

Busyness can rob our clear thinking, our peace and our ability to hear God. Busyness leads to exhaustion and fatigue.

It is so easy to get lost in the chaos of life and not take time out to just be and listen. If you feel like you are on a "Busy" Treadmill.... I encourage you to press pause. You don't need to compete with anyone else. You can miss out on so much being stuck on the "Busy" Treadmill! It can be very hard to do in our crazy lives... but take time and be still today.

Journal

Take Some Time and Be Still...What is God Telling you?

Day 7

"God is with Her, she will not fail (be moved)" Psalm 46:5

How Powerful is this Verse! How often do we forget as Women of God, that we have Him on our Side! And with the Maker of the Universe on our Side we wont fail! Sometimes situations can happen and we perceive it as a failure but one day we will see that it wasn't. It was just a part of the patchwork and growth steps to become all God designed and destined us to be. There are no such things as Failures for us, God will work all for our good.

So have peace, joy & hope today knowing that God is on your side and you WILL NOT FAIL! God never has and never will lose control. He holds all your hopes & dreams and He will work them all for your good. Have Faith beautiful women of worth.

Journal

Write down all that you are trusting for today.

Day 8

” She is Clothed with strength and dignity and she laughs without fear of the future” Proverbs 31:25

Do you ever think of yourself clothed in Strength & Dignity? Well you are! So put on your "clothes" today and run outside. Stretch your arms out wide, twirl around and release all your worries to God and Laugh! I dare you!!

Hand over all your anxieties and worries to God and when you do, don't pick them up again! I promise you God's shoulders are much stronger than yours!

Journal

Write down & Release all your fears to God in Prayer today.

Day 9

"We are God's masterpiece"
Ephesians 2:10

God never has and never will make mistakes and that includes you! Nothing about you is by accident. You Are Perfectly & Wonderfully Made (Psalm 139). When God designed you He gave you the exact physical, spiritual and emotional make up to achieve all He has planned for you. You are not meant to be like anyone else.

You are perfectly YOU! So don't fall into the comparison trap. This only robs our joy and calling on our lives. You are the perfect Women, Daughter, Mom, Wife & Friend for your people. Never doubt it! God's strength is made perfect in our weaknesses. So rejoice in all that you are and all who you are today!

If you never have before,... Celebrate yourself today!

Journal

Write Down all your Amazingness!
God has made you perfectly & you need to celebrate your Beauty Today!

"What Legacy are you Creating? How will they Remember you?"

Day 10

"You are Altogether Beautiful my darling.
There is no flaw in you" Song of Songs 4:7

God Loves you just the way you are. Think of the Love a Groom has for his Bride on their wedding day. He sees no flaws in his Bride but only radiates love and joy for her. This is the same way God thinks about you! When He looks at you he beams with pride and joy at you!

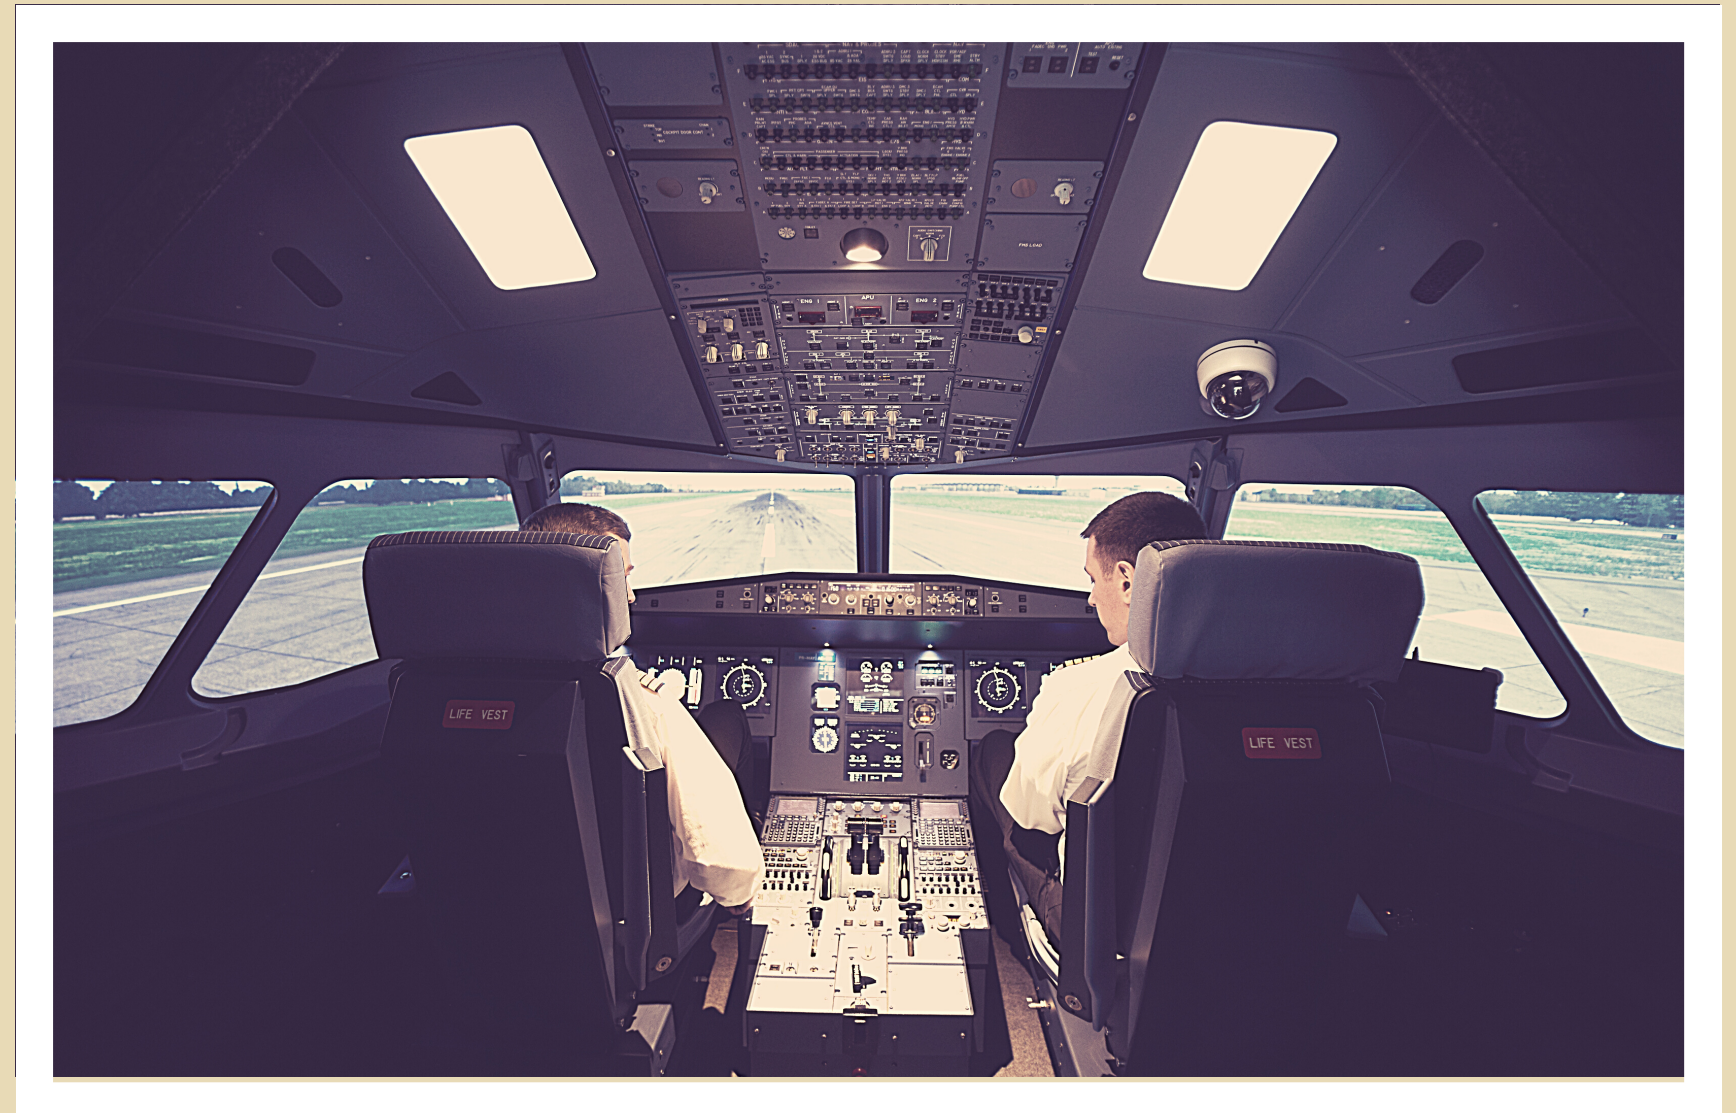

God sees no flaws in you and only sees your beauty. I challenge you to see yourself in the same way ;)

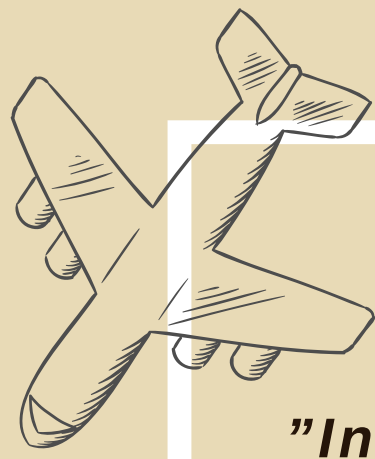

Sometimes we don't realise the magnitude of God's love for us. If you are a Mom, think how much you love your children and God loves us even more than that! I know that is hard to even fathom, but it is true!

Journal

Meditate on God's Love for you today :)

Day 11

"Instead make yourself beautiful on the inside, in your hearts with enduring quality of a gentle and quiet spirit. This type of beauty is very precious in Gods eyes" 1 Peter 3:4

This is the Verse I have Taped to my Bedroom Mirror. It is such a brilliant reminder to not become overly obsessed with our outer appearance and neglect our inner person.

Of course we must look after ourselves but not to the point where we obsesses over it How easy is it to be confused with the way the world considers beauty, but when in fact a quiet and gentle spirit is true Beauty?

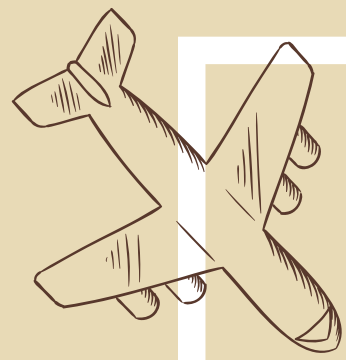

Be wise and don't fall for the way that media portray beauty. It can so often be shallow, fake and superficial. True Beauty is more than just our physical, it is what shines and radiates from our inner person. Our Eyes are a window to the soul. Are your eyes shining or have they lost their spark?

Journal

What qualities do you find most Beautiful in yourself and in others you admire?

"Charm is deceitful and beauty is fleeting but a women who fears the Lord will be praised" Proverbs 31:30

Day 12

"God will fight your battles for you, all you need to do is be still" Exodus 4:14

How often do we fight battles we don't need to and do things in our own strength that we weren't meant to?

We often forget God is there for us in everything and His ways are higher and better than our own. Often when we don't wait on God and go ahead doing our own way, we make a mess of things,

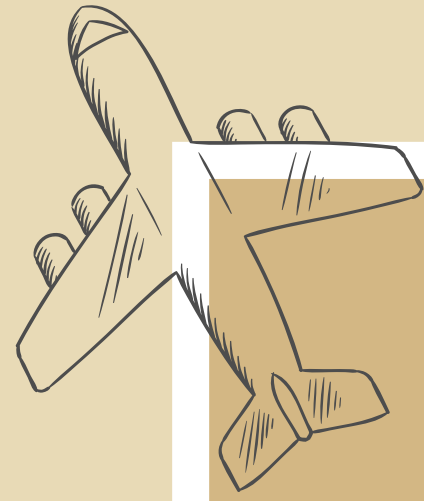

When you feel like you are surrounded and can't keep going on, remember it is not in your own strength that we fight, Give your battles over to God. Let Go and Let God.

Journal

Is there a part of your life right now God is asking you to let go of the steering wheel? Let Go & Let God?

Day 13

"Blessed is she who has believed that God will fulfill his promises to her!" Luke 1:45

Do you truly believe that God has your back? That He will fulfill His promises to you? Faith is a strong trust and belief in what we cannot see. It is all about trusting God that when we step out He will come through for us.

I challenge you to have an active faith in God today. Believe that He will fulfill His promises to you! If you have faith that the chair you sitting on will support your weight....surely you can have faith the God of the Universe will support you and fulfill all He has promised to you?

Journal

What are you trusting God for? What has He promised you?

Day 14

"A friend loves at all times" Proverbs 17:17

A True Friend is a great blessing. If you have a friend who supports & loves you always, count yourself blessed. So often we think having lots of friends and being "popular" is the goal (and its wonderful to have many friends) but can you count on these friends? Are you are friend your friends can count on?

What qualities do you want in a friend? A true friend knows your weaknesses but shows you your strength, feels your fears but strengthens your faith and sees your anxieties but encourages your abilities. If you have a friend like this count yourself blessed and treasure this friend. If you don't have a trustworthy, loving friend, I pray God brings you one!

Journal

How is God challenging you today?

Day 15

””Many Women do noble things but you excel them all” Proverbs 31:29

Do you believe you are a women of Noble Character? Well believe me you ARE and have been created and designed for great things! God put you on this earth to make an impact!

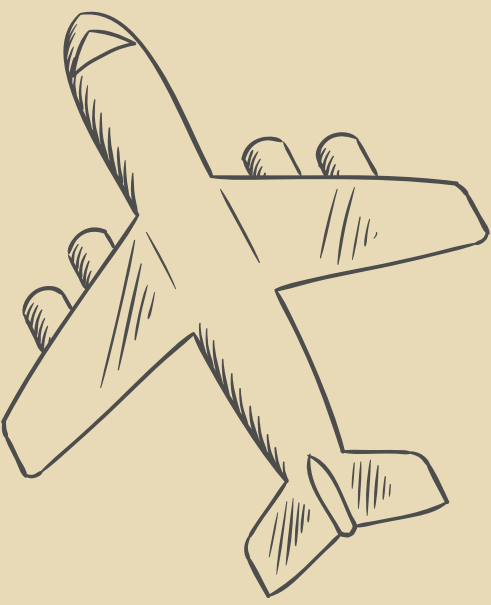

If you have never fully believed in yourself, your looks, personality, talents and strengths... I encourage you to start today! You have gifts and talents that no one else does. You have been set apart beautiful women!

Ask God to show you how loved and treasured you are and ask Him to reveal His unique purpose for your life. You are here to make and create a legacy!

Journal

What are your unique talents & gifts? Celebrate the amazing women you are and the beautiful qualities that God has uniquely given you!

Day 16

"Do not be deceived, Bad company corrupts good character" 1 Corinthians 15:33

We all know its true but so often we don't recognize it. We always taught to be around people we aspire to be like, because it motivates us. for greater. It also helps us to grow into more but the opposite is also true. When we spend time with the wrong people and people who swear, gossip and slander... we tend to start doing the same. This happens when you spend time with a negative person... you start to become negative yourself! We do become the company we keep.

This doesn't mean reject people or don't love people who are on different paths in life to you. Jesus would love and accept everyone but just make sure you have a good company of people around you that you are accountable to. We need people who we can trust to keep us in check and keep us in line. .

Journal

Are there any areas in your life that aren't a positive influence?

Day 17

””Have you not been created for such a time as this?” Esther 4:14

Comparing... it is such a joy stealer! When we compare our abilities and calling to someone else's it can rob the blessings God has for us. I challenge you today to STOP comparing! You have been created ON purpose FOR a purpose and it is unique to YOU! God never makes mistakes and he has created you perfectly for His plans.

I encourage you today to recognize your unique gifts and step into the purpose God has for you. It is not by accident that you were created for this season in life. You are here for a reason and in this period of time for a reason. Ask God to reveal that time to you and what He is calling you into.

Your time is NOW my Lovely!

How do you deal with life when you are Overwhelmed? Can these methods be improved?

Day 18

”When my heart is overwhelmed lead me to the rock that is higher than I” Psalm 61:2

“Overwhelmed” is such a relevant word for Women juggling family, kids, work, life and demands. Isn't this how we so often feel? Overwhelmed with all that needs to be done and to make sure it is done with excellence! “Be the Best Wife, Be the Best Mom, Be the Best Friend ... Don't drop the Ball!”. The Pressures are Great! An “Overwhelmed HEART” is anxious, fearful and exhausted. I know for me it is when my heart is totally overwhelmed that I have my snap moments.

My mother always tells me, you cant fill everyone else's cups if yours is empty- so you need to make sure you keep refilling your own cup! Not so easy when you don't even have a second in the day to just sit down but try and prioritize 5 minutes a day. Focus on recharging your own batteries.

Sometimes we just have to Let Go and Let God. Get perspective, He is Higher than You in every way and the ultimate support, comfort and rock on which to stand and cast all your burdens and worry onto. Psalm 55.22 “Cast your burden on the Lord, And He shall sustain you”

Day 19

””Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth” 1John 3:18

There is nothing worse than empty promises. Someone who says “I’d love to but...” Love is an action word, a doing word. If you love someone you sacrifice your time, comfort and convenience for them.

God tells us in 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 that Love is patient and kind. It does not envy, boast or be proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

These are all actions associated with love. Don't give empty promises. Back up your words with actions. The impact of this kind of love will leave a lasting legacy for all those you hold dear.

Journal

Do you believe Love is an Action word? How do you show your Love?

Day 20

"Above all else guard your heart for everything flows from it" - Proverbs 4:23

Boundaries can be a challenge for so many of us and my boundaries have never been as tested than when I became a mother. Our dear little ones can push our emotional, mental and physical boundaries – and some boundaries we didn't even know we had!

"Above All Else..." . These three words should grab your attention and say Remember this, This is very important! So often when we get hurt or disappointed by people, it is because we didn't have clear boundaries and so we allowed them to take advantage of our time, love, values etc.

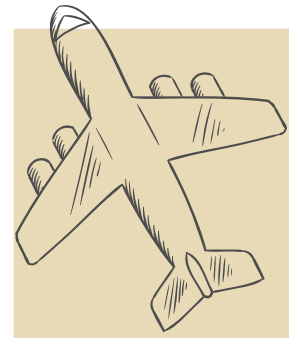

Saying No is not always easy – we are often worried about offending and hurting others or being rejected. But God tells us to "Guard our Hearts", be clear and have boundaries and "Let your Yes be Yes and your No be No" Matthew 5:37

If we don't keep healthy boundaries, it can jeopardize not only our own well being but the well being of others and our relationships with them. It can hurt your marriage, friendships, work relationships and your relationship with your children. Boundaries are good and they are there to protect us and our relationships- they are not selfish!

Journal

Are there any areas of your life needing better boundaries?

Day 21

"We know that in All things God works for the Good of those who love Him and have been Called according to His purpose" Romans 8:28

This is one of the most popular bible verses in the bible. A Promise straight from God. It doesn't mean that life will be easy or without trials, but it means that we will be ok no matter what because we have God on our side. It give us hope for the future and hope for tomorrow.

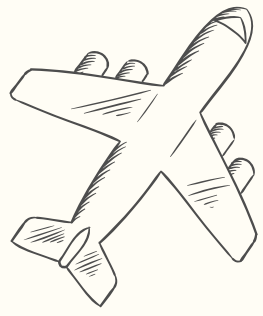

Verses like Romans 8:28 assure us that no suffering is wasted, and God is always at work for our good and his glory. When we cannot comprehend why trials come and struggle to imagine that anything good can come from them, we can rest in the security that God is in control. Because of this, we can have hope. God never has and never will lose control. He holds your future in His mighty hands!

Do you have your hope anchored in God or somewhere else?
